

Transaction expected to contribute total revenue of over $170 million over the next seven years

Exela's Healthcare industry 2019 revenue expected to grow above 5% industry growth rate estimate

IRVING, Texas, Jan. 03, 2019 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Exela Technologies, Inc. ("Exela") (NASDAQ: XELA), a leader in business process automation ("BPA") across several industries with location agnostic solutions, today announced the closing of a healthcare industry asset acquisition, as it continues to expand its activities in this space. The accretive acquisition was funded with cash on hand.

The acquisition will add over $20 million of annual revenue and for the next seven years, guaranteed annual revenue increases each year. By leveraging industry leading healthcare platforms, cognitive automation and deep domain knowledge, Exela's existing healthcare business of $346 million, or 22% of total revenue on a trailing 12-month basis ending September 30, 2018, is positioned to grow higher than the overall industry estimate of 5%.

"We are focused on providing our healthcare industry customers best of class solutions and services and are committed to profitable growth across all industries we serve. Near term, we expect our healthcare business growth rate to be higher than the healthcare industry growth rate estimates, backed by in-hand incremental business from existing customers, new customer wins and prudent investments," said Suresh Yannamani, President, Exela Technologies.
